The programme is recognised by the Govt. of Assam vide Notifications No. ASE 313/2013/207A dated 01/06/2017 and No. ASE 217/2014/240 dated 08/05/2020.

Minimum qualification for admission:

Candidates who have passed the High School Leaving Certificate (HSLC)/ All India Secondary School (CBSE Class X) Examination of any Board/Council or its equivalent examination recognised by the Govt. of Assam are eligible for admission to DCBL.

Admission Process:

Admission to DCBL is a 3-stage process designed to allow prospective students to enroll in the programme. This process includes the following stages :-

Stage-I (Online): REGISTRATION

Registration for Admission Test of DCBL programme will be accepted through Google Form- the link will be provided in the official website <https://barakbanga.in>. Interested students may apply for Registration as per the schedule mentioned above.

List of Registered applicants will be published along with their Admit Cards as per the Admission Schedule and will be available in this website.

Stage-II (Offline): ADMISSION TEST (Written Test and Personal Interview):

Admission Test consists of two integral components: Written Test and Personal Interview. These components will be collectively used to assess a candidate's eligibility for admission. Marks and duration are as follows:

Written Test : Full marks: 30, Pass marks: 15 and duration: 1 (one) hour;

Personal Interview: Full marks: 20 and Pass marks: 10.

Important Notes

- ❖ Basic knowledge of Bengali alphabet is a prerequisite for admission. Candidates must be capable of reading, comprehending and communicating in Bengali with considerable fluency. The medium of the admission test (Written and Personal Interview) is Bengali.
- ❖ The Written Test will focus on Bengali handwriting and the following topics of Bengali language: Alphabets, numericals, spelling, semantics (English-Bengali, Bengali-English), translation (English-Bengali, Bengali-English), synonyms, antonyms and sentence composition.
- ❖ The Personal Interview will assess candidate's ability to read, write and speak in Bengali.
- ❖ Candidates who pass the Written Test will be called for Personal Interview to be held at Banga Bhawan, Silchar. Dates for Personal Interviews will be announced along with the result of the Written Test and it will be held serially according to candidates' Registration Numbers, scheduled for each day.
- ❖ The final list of selected candidates for admission to DCBL programme will be based on combined performance in both the Written Test and Personal Interview. This selection list, along with admission dates, will be published as per the Admission Schedule and that will be available in this website.
- ❖ Candidates who have studied "Bengali" as M.I.L. subject in the Secondary Education Examination or its equivalent (Class 10) are exempted from the "Stage II: Admission Test" - however, they will have to follow Stages-I and III (Registration and Admission) as per the Admission Schedule.
